CITY NEWS.

THE PARTICULARS OF THE KILLING OF WILLIAM McFERRAN.—In the Democrat of Sunday morning we made brief mention of the killing of Wm. McFerran, about one o'clock that morning, on Green street, between Third and Fourth. We have since learned the following particulars in regard to the sad affair: William Newton, the young man who did the killing, in company with several other young men, who had been out serenading, were coming up Green street, when they were met near the "Home Saloon" by the deceased and William E. Baldwin. Some words passed between Baldwin and the serenading party, when one of them called Baldwin very hard names. Baldwin then started for Newton, the latter all the time retreating. Baldwin followed him up and struck him in the face with his hat. Newton drew his pistol and threatened to shoot Baldwin if he did not desist. Baldwin still followed Newton up, and then the latter again drew his pistol and fired. Just at the time the shot was fired McFerran stepped between the parties with the intention of getting Baldwin away. The shot took effect in McFerran's abdomen, passing through his body and coming out on the right side. McFerran was taken into the office of Dr. Smith, where he expired in a few moments. The accused was arrested by the officers and presented to the police court yesterday, when his case was continued until to-day.

Below we give the verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case:

Inquest No. 183.—Held February 28th, 1864, at Dr. Smith's office, on Green street, between Third and Fourth, on the body of William H. McFerran, aged twenty-four years. Verdict: "Came to death at or about 12½ o'clock a.m., February 28th, 1864, from a pistol-shot wound in and upon the lower part of the abdomen, right side, inflicted by Wm. Newton; said shot being fired at one Wm. E. Baldwin, and not at the deceased. Said McFerran lost his life in attempting to suppress a difficulty."

J. C. GILL, Coroner.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, Feb. 29.—The prisoners' bench this morning was well filled with prisoners charged with various offenses. The first called was that of Riley Wilson, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5 for drunkenness, and ball in $200 to keep the peace towards his family for six months.

Wm. Newton was next presented, charged with the killing of William McFerran; con- tinued until to-morrow morning, and the party remained to jail.

William E. Baldwin, charged with assaulting Wm. Newton; ball in $100 to answer, and ball in $300 for one year's good behavior.

Jerry Holloman, charged with rape upon the person of Margaret Downey; discharged.

John Regan, stabbing Frederick R. be, with intent to kill; continued until Thursday morning. Felli McKinley, slave of Judge McKinley, and Henry Moore, f. m. c., drunkenness and disorderly conduct; free boy fined $5 and slave ordered to serve ten stripes.

Ann McGuire, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; discharged.

John Longfield and E. W. Morris were next presented on the charge of highway robbery, having stolen seventy dollars from a soldier named Joseph Hahn. As Judge Johnston was an important witness in the case, Robert F. Baird was elected Judge pro tem. At the time we left the courthouse (half past twelve o'clock) the case was under hearing.

THE RAPE CASE.—Last Friday morning Margaret Downey sued out a warrant against Jerry Holloman, charging him with committing a rape upon her person on the 25th of December last, and in the Democrat of Saturday morning we published the particulars of the affair as related to us by the woman herself. The accused had a hearing before Judge Johnston yesterday morning, and the contradictory statements of the woman herself, who acknowledged that she had been drinking to a considerable extent on the morning the crime was alleged to have been committed, were sufficient to throw great doubt on the whole affair. Another witness—Bridget Kennedy—was examined for the prosecution, who testified that Margaret Downey at the time she came to the house, and while accused was still there, was lying upon the floor too drunk to get up. At this point the case was dismissed at the instigation of the City Attorney, and thus ended a case which promised such a rare feast for the scandal mongers.

We regret to announce the death of Dr. A. S. Crothers, late Superintendent of the Jeffersonville railroad, which said event occurred on Friday evening last. He has for a long time suffered from consumption, and his death was anticipated by his friends. Dr. C. was a thorough and attentive business man, an amiable gentleman, and a kind and loving father and husband. We sympathize with his bereaved family, to whom he was tenderly attached, and offer them our condolence in a sadden spirit than we have words to express.

BARRACKS ITEMS.—Two hundred and twenty-eight recruits from Ohio and Michigan; one hundred and twenty-six convalescents, en route to join their regiments at the front, and five deserters from Indianapolis, were received at Barracks No. 1 yesterday. Two hundred recruits and one hundred and sixteen convalescents were transferred to their regiments, and nine prisoners were sent to Cairo in irons.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—Yesterday the provost guard on duty in this city arrested Henry Solider, who is a deserter from company F, one hundred and Forty-ninth Ohio. Alexander Armstrong, a deserter from company A, Twenty-second Kentucky, was arrested in Franklin county and brought to this city for trial. These parties will be examined by the court martial now in session in this city.

RE ENLISTED VETERANS.—The following regiments passed through the city yesterday: Twenty-sixth Illinois, Twenty-nine and Fifty-first Indiana, going to the front, having been home on furlough, and the Forty-fourth Illinois from the front, en route home on furlough of thirty days.

We call the special attention of our readers to the notice of Maj. M. G. Siddle, en-prefecture of recruiting in Kentucky. The bounties now offered for recruits should so stimulate volunteering in Kentucky as to place the Commonwealth at a safe distance from the draft.

The ladies of Independence, Kenton county, presented a splendid sword to Lieut. H. W. Bryson, of the Eighteenth Kentucky volunteers, at that place, on Friday evening last.

We direct the attention of readers to the advertisement of Mr. Ben. Tabben, of the "Express Saloon." He goes in for maintaining the old pries, and extends a challenge to others in the business for their consideration.

We learn that a military commission will be convened in this city for the trial of persons arrested as guerrillas, and not belonging to any of the regular rebel armies.

Yesterday was an exceedingly dull day, nothing of interest transpiring in either civil or military circles.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN THE CITY CHARTER.—In another part of to-day's Democrat we publish an act passed at the last session of the Legislature, making some important changes in the city charter, to which we call the reader's attention. The boundary of the city has been extended and the numbering of the wards altered. The salary of the Mayor has been increased from $2,000 to $2,500 per year. The charter is also so altered that whenever any vacancy occurs in any of the city offices, except the Mayor's, such vacancy shall be filled by the Common Council. Heretofore the Judge of the City Court has had no power to impose fines, but all fines had to be imposed by juries, and in cases which were not indictable the Judge would hold the party present to hall, failing to give which he was sent to the workhouse. This portion of the charter has been so altered that in all cases which are not indictable the Judge can fine the parties from three to fifteen dollars, or hold them to bail or do both, as may seem best in his judgment. The money collected from these fines goes toward defraying the expenses of the court, and whatever surplus there may be is to go into the common school fund. This is an excellent change and one which meets the approval of all. There are several other changes in the charter of which we have not time or space to speak at present, but which are contained in the act published elsewhere.

RUNAWAY—SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Considerable excitement was occasioned on Main street about noon yesterday by a horse, attached to a small spring-wagon, dashing up the street at a fearful gait. The driver, an old man, wrapped the reins around his wrists and held on frantically, guiding the frightened steed through the large number of wagons which daily crowd Main street at that hour. When between Third and Fourth streets one of the front wheels of the wagon came in contact with a dray, which was standing in the middle of the street, and the horses became detached from the wagon. The reins were wrapped so tightly around the old man's wrists, he was pulled from the wagon and dragged a considerable distance through the street. He received several severe contusions, which bled profusely. We were unable to learn his name.

SOLDIER SHOT.—About 8 o'clock last evening a shooting affair occurred at the corner of Third and Jefferson streets, in which James Peary, of company C, Twelfth Kentucky, was shot and wounded by E. M. Brown, of the Twentieth Kentucky. It appears that Brown, who was on duty last evening, arrested Percy in accordance with orders, and was taking him to the guard house. When at the northeast corner of Third and Jefferson streets Percy broke from the guard and ran across the street out Third. He was ordered to halt three different times, but not obeying the order, the guard fired, the ball taking effect in the back just below the left shoulder, inflicting a very fearful wound. Percy was taken into the office of Dr. Kosher, near by, where his wounds were dressed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The regular Jefferson county Sunday School Convention meets next Thursday (March 3d) at Jeffersonville, Kentucky. All ministers, superintendents, teachers and friends of Sunday Schools in the city and county are earnestly invited to be present. The convention opens at 9 and closes at 4 o'clock. Children's meeting at 8. The citizens are making arrangements to meet the temporal wants of man and beast on the day of convention.

LOUISVILLE ASSOCIATION FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—A general meeting of the distributors and executive committee is called to assemble at the City Council Chamber on Tuesday afternoon at 5½ o'clock, to take into consideration the propriety of discontinuing further operations.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.—Sir James Clarke's CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS

Price 50 cents.

This is the second volume of the DETECTIVE SERIES which the publisher announces to issue. It is a collection of short stories, each containing a mystery, some of these are extraordinary in detail, without being extravagant or improbable. An expert detective is called on to play a game of fence with men whose wiles are sharpened by need, fear and practice; and the consequences between skill and roguery in which he engages, are striking to all ages and conditions of people. The series is intended to be a monthly publication, and the author's chief object is to excite the reader's interest and sympathy, who are unable to give the reader intense gratification, but convey a clear idea of the annuals of crime in a large city, without being repulsive or demoralizing.

[SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. The steamer Asia, from Liverpool 13th and Queenstown 14th February, arrived here this forenoon.

Lord Derby, in the House of Lords, attacked Earl Russell, the Government, for failing to make any movement in the name of the nation.

Pending legal investigations in the House of Commons, Mr. Layard reiterated his statement that Mr. Adams had made no official or verbal communication to Earl Russell of the substance of Seward's dispatches of the 10th of July last.

Earl Fitzgerald called attention to the circumstances attending the capture of certain British sailors by the Federals, and the murder of one of the crew of the Sioux by a Federal Lieutenant. He asserted that Lord Russell had done enough in the matter, and moved for the repeal of all laws for the rendition of fugitive slaves.

[Special to the Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. A portion of the Army of the Potowmack moved yesterday, and was in successful advance.

The principal amendment proposed to the national currency act by the Comptroller of Currency requires national banks to redeem their circulating notes in the city of New York at par, and to pay interest at the rate of 7 per cent, interest throughout the United States; reduces the lawful reserve to be kept from 25 to 15 per cent, for country banks; and from 35 to 20 per cent, for foreign banks; provides for a minimum of $100,000 capital for banks in the country, and $20,000 in cities; requires as a condition of the right to receive deposits that 25 per cent of the surplus gold be deposited in the Treasury, to be kept on deposit with the Treasurer of the United States whether the banks take circulation or not.

CINCINNATI, February 29.

The cars on the Jeffersonville and Indianapolis railroad were thrown from the track on Saturday. Fourteen Illinois soldiers were injured.

The Atlanta Guard opposed the motion. He said the principle of the prize adjudication in America is the same as in England, and the disposition of the American Government is very far and just.

During a general debate several speakers charged the Government with a truckling policy toward the American Government.

Lord Palmerston said it was due to the American Government to say that he had received England's representations in a spirit of equity and justice. He quoted the Trent case as evidence of a desire to be right. It was preëdicted that the understanding between the two nations, as far as possible, would be to accept the principle of acts which it was not guilty of, and expressing distrust of their equity, and nothing justified such charges. The resolution was withdrawn.

A reliable report is current that two first-class English houses, sufferers by the rebel cruisers, are about to dispose of some of the fastest steamers still in pursuit of pirates. It is suggested that this may be another rebel dodge.

It is confirmed that England proposed an armistice on the basis of the evacuation of all Schleswig, except Alsen, by the Danes. Russia, France and Sweden support the proposition.

It is stated that Austria assents, but the result is not yet known.

Nothing but mere skirmishes are reported to have taken place. The Germans were receiving large re-enforcements, and making preparations against Alsen. The Prussians occupied Altona in spite of Federal protest. The Danes were capturing Prussian vessels.

The Danes had captured thirteen and a half millions of francs in specie.

Mazzini has been indicted as an accomplice in the late plot against Napoleon.

Borneo, Feb. 28.—The new Galatea steamer arrived on the 16th. The new steamer leaves Liverpool on that day for New York.

The Parliamentary proceedings in the case of the captured steamer Lamport, seized in the Clyde, commenced in the exchequer court at Edinburgh on the 14th. The indemnements are similar to those in the Alexandria case. The suitors put in a general denial and appeal to the jury. The case was adjourned till the 13th.

The London Times has an article on the Parliamentary debate upon the trial by the Federal Government of the Lamport.

The steamer was captured on the 1st. It bears the alleged master on board, the Saxon as a most serious case, and says any negligence in demanding and inquiring the punishment of the crime will be an abandonment of duty.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Treaties have been signed with Prussia, Austria and the Saxon, and the latter is the fact that ever visited these waters.

The City of Petersburg, captured captured, and now held in a dire dilemma.

A fire occurred on the 11th, at St. George among piles of cotton brought by the steamer Advance. A large number of bales were thrown overboard to check the flames. A large amount of property was destroyed. It is generally believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The steamer Housier had also arrived from Wilmington.

Hanover, Feb. 12.—The Dames, on the 10th, were posted about an hour's march from Dampf.

Among the passengers by the Asia is Mr. Sartorius, United States Minister to Belgium.

The steamer Washington says troops and artillery continue to pass through her, bound northward. It is not certainly known whether an attack on Doppel has commenced, but a few wounded were brought in.

Copenhagen, Feb. 12.—An outpost skirmish occurred yesterday. The enemy was repulsed with great loss, and some prisoners were taken. The enemy to-day took possession of Jevano-a-Blo. The King had returned to Copenhagen.

KNOXVILLE, Feb. 26.

At the last accounts, Gen. Longstreet was still retreating, his headquarters being at Greenville on Wednesday night. Our cavalry came up this morning—about noon, the battle of Bean Station yesterday. A slight skirmish ensued. The rebels gave way. Gen. Schofield is pursuing with his troops, but owing to the rapid retreat of the enemy, no engagement is expected. The rebels are reported to be on the railroad bridge at Spring Hill and the railroads at St. John's, Tennessee, and the track were injured beyond the possibility of present use. Five officers and a number of men deserted when Longstreet fell back, and have taken up an army near the rebels. The officers state that he is returning to Virginia with his original troops, leaving Johnston and Buckner to protect the Virginia border.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.

The steamer Champion has arrived from Aspinwall with $40,700 in specie. She brings no news.

The Herald's Army of the Potowmack dispatch states that a reconnaissance by Col. Murphy, of the Seventeenth New York, from Fairfax to Wolf Run, Thursday last, found a force of rebels camped. It is supposed that the rebels of Lee's army was moving down on the west side of the mountain toward Harper's Ferry. The universal activity among our troops might give some idea of the rumors.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that Gen. Sickles is expected to start on Wednesday for the West, and thence to the Atlantic coast, visiting Nashville, Chattanooga, Hilton Head, Fort Monroe, etc., to investigate concerning rebel deserters, prisoners of war, and parties taken in our lines, the result of which is to be told before the President to shape his future policy in relation to Southern disloyalists.

NEW CREEK, Feb. 27.

It is understood that Governor Borenman has duly transmitted the resolutions of the Secretary of War, Virginian, calling upon military authorities for information as to the measures having been adopted for making good the deficiency in this State.

We have information that a large portion of Roseau's command is to be sent on for long.

Iubilene is reported at last accounts to be in Rockbridge county.

The enemy continue to forge with small parties. Our scouts are out and active after these forces.

The reports that the enemy is sending a large force toward Franklin, Penobscot county, Penn., is untrue. We bring the latest news from the direction of the front on the lookout for an advance from this side. There is nothing from Gen. Early.

WASHINGTON, February 28.

Information from the Army of the Potowmack states that on Thursday night about one hundred rebels crossed the river near Raccoon Ford, and made a fierce charge, killing two horses, killing two men, soon after which they made a hasty retreat across the river.

The party of the rebels, however, took the opportunity to desert, and came into our lines.

Our cavalry patrols may have taken place in the rear session.

The private subscriptions for the suffering people in East Tennessee now amount to $1,250.

XXXVIII Congress.—First Session.

WASHINGTON, February 29.

Mr. Julian, of Indiana, introduced a bill to secure to persons in the military and naval service homesteads in confiscated and forfeited estates within insurrectionary districts. Refers to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Root, of New York, introduced a bill to nominate Caleb Lyons for Governor of Idaho. It is known, from a creditable source, that he was confirmed by the Senate without a dissenting vote.

SENATE.

Mr. Grimes introduced a bill for the protection of overland emigrants to the Pacific. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Sumner, from Select Committee on Slavery and Secession, introduced a bill to make the first slave law, accompanied with a bill for the repeal of all laws for the rendition of fugitive slaves.

[Special to the Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

A portion of the Army of the Potowmack moved yesterday, and was in successful advance.

The principal amendment proposed to the national currency act by the Comptroller of the Currency requires national banks to redeem their circulating notes in the city of New York at par, and to pay interest at the rate of 7 per cent, interest throughout the United States; reduces the lawful reserve to be kept from 25 to 15 per cent, for country banks; and from 35 to 20 per cent, for foreign banks; provides for a minimum of $100,000 capital for banks in the country, and $20,000 in cities; requires as a condition of the right to receive deposits that 25 per cent of the surplus gold be deposited in the Treasury, to be kept on deposit with the Treasurer of the United States whether the banks take circulation or not.

CINCINNATI, February 29.

The Atlanta Appeal says that Sherman's purpose is to subdue the South, to which he is moving against Mobile on the 1st, and against New Orleans on the 15th. Sherman, with sudden and unexpected rapidity, has moved against our weakest point, Mississippi is the Egypt of the Confederacy, where, if not defeated, he can subjugate all spring, and do more damage to us than all the other armies of the Confederacy combined.

He is making war on our subsistence and resources, to destroy which is to defeat us.

Sherman marches to Mobile with his army, and has already reached the Gulf of Mexico. He is now in full view of the rebels.

The Atlanta Guard opposed the motion.

He said the principle of the prize adjudication in America is the same as in England, and the disposition of the American Government is very far and just.

During a general debate several speakers charged the Government with a truckling policy toward the American Government.

Lord Palmerston said it was due to the American Government to say that he had received England's representations in a spirit of equity and justice. He quoted the Trent case as evidence of a desire to be right.
